Philosophy of Education MCQs

Comprehensive Study Guide & Question Bank

Part 1: General Philosophy of Education

1. The word "education" is derived from…….

A) Latin word | B) Greek

C) English | D) None of the above

2. According to Socrates education is an intellectual……..

A) Midwifery | B) Actualize Human Potential

C) Formation of Personality | D) None of the above

3. The philosophical view that all that exists is physical……..…..

A) Materialism | B) Idealism

C) Pragmatism | D) None of the above

4. The concept of Eudaimonia is related to:

A) Aristotle | B) Plato

C) Socrates | D) None of the above

5. “Education is not a preparation for life but life itself” who said it?

A) Dewey | B) Aristotle

C) Plato | D) None of the above

6. Western educational philosophy was laid in ancient……..

A) Rome | B) Greek

C) England | D) None of the above

7. According to…… the ultimate aim of Progressive education was the cultivation of democratic citizenship.

A) Dewey	B) Plato
C) Aristotle	D) None of the above

8. The fundamental axiom of ……. education is that the child is not a miniature adult, but a unique being with distinct stages of growth.

A) Naturalistic	B) Idealistic
C) Pragmatistic	D) None of the above

9. According to ……. the primary aim of education is the development of the individual's personality and the realization of their highest potential.

A) Pragmatism	B) Idealism
C) Naturalism	D) None of the above

10. The quintessential Idealist method is…….. pioneered by Socrates and refined by Plato and Hegel.

A) Dialectical method	B) Doing and learning method
C) Lecturing	D) None of the above

Part 2: Modern Indian Educational Thinkers

11. The ultimate aim of education according to……is the manifestation of the perfection already inherent within the individual.

A) Vivekananda	B) Gandhi
C) Ambedkar	D) None of the above

12. The most evocative term in Vivekananda's educational lexicon is…….

A) Man-making	B) Social
C) Citizen	D) None of the above

13. Aurobindo's philosophy of education is a call for a …….

A) Spiritualized humanity	B) Personality oriented
C) Industrial oriented	D) None of the above

14. Aurobindo's Integral Education is challenging the dominant ……concept of education.

A) Banking concept	B) Idealistic concept
C) Naturalistic concept	D) None of the above

15. According to who, the daily engagement in a productive craft provided rigorous and purposeful physical training.

A) Gandhi	B) Vivekananda
C) Aurobindo	D) None of the above

LMS Video MCQs: Module 1

16. The word education is derived from the Latin term educare, which means:

A) To instruct formally	B) To lead out or draw forth
C) To discipline strictly	D) To examine critically

17. According to Plato, education is primarily the process of:

A) Memorizing facts and information	B) Preparing for employment
C) Turning the soul toward the light of truth	D) Training for political leadership only

18. Aristotle believed that the main aim of education is:

A) Economic productivity	B) Development of sound mind in sound body
C) Religious obedience alone	D) Technical specialization

19. The term education is derived from the Latin words educare and educere, which primarily mean:

A) To examine and to test	B) To nourish and to lead out
C) To control and to command	D) To memorize and to repeat

20. According to Plato, education is essentially:

A) Training for economic productivity
B) Preparation for political power
C) Turning the soul towards the light of truth
D) Memorization of established doctrines

21. In Democracy and Education, John Dewey argues that education is:

A) Preparation for examinations
B) Life itself and rooted in experience
C) Limited to moral instruction
D) Must focus only on vocational skills

22. The concept of conscientization in education is mainly associated with:

A) Aristotle
B) Mahatma Gandhi
C) Paulo Freire
D) Plato

23. According to UNESCO, one of the major contemporary aims of education is to promote:

A) Military expansion
B) Cultural isolation
C) Peace and sustainable development
D) Social hierarchy

24. The primary aim of the philosophy of education is to:

A) Provide technical training methods
B) Critically examine the aims, values and foundations of education
C) Replace classroom teaching with research
D) Focus only on administrative management

25. The normative function of the philosophy of education mainly deals with:

A) Collecting statistical data
B) Setting educational standards and ideals
C) Designing school buildings
D) Conducting psychological experiments

26. Who emphasized education as growth and reconstruction of experience?

A) Plato
B) Aristotle
C) John Dewey
D) Thomas Aquinas

27. The analytical function of philosophy of education primarily involves:

A) Memorizing educational theories
B) Examining logical inconsistencies in educational arguments
C) Increasing classroom discipline
D) Preparing students for examinations

28. The philosophy of education helps in curriculum development by:

A) Ignoring social values
B) Providing a rational basis for selecting subjects and content
C) Eliminating teacher responsibilities
D) Focusing only on vocational subjects

29. Which of the following best describes the primary functions of philosophy?

A) To conduct laboratory experiments
B) To collect statistical data
C) To critically examine fundamental questions about reality, knowledge, and values
D) To provide technical training

30. The branch of philosophy that deals with the nature and limits of knowledge is called:

A) Ethics
B) Metaphysics
C) Epistemology
D) Aesthetics

31. Who is known for developing the method of systematic questioning known as the Socratic method?

A) Aristotle
B) Socrates
C) Immanuel Kant
D) John Dewey

32. Which branch of philosophy is concerned with moral values and the principles of right conduct?

A) Logic
B) Aesthetics
C) Ethics
D) Epistemology

33. The scope of philosophy includes all of the following except:

A) Studying ultimate reality
B) Analysis of reasoning
C) Examination of moral values
D) Manufacturing of industrial goods

LMS Video MCQs: Module 2

34. According to Idealism, the ultimate aim of education is:

A) Development of physical strength
B) Preparation for employment
C) Development of the mind and realization of the self
D) Acquisition of technical skills

35. Who is regarded as an important philosopher associated with Idealism in educational philosophy?

A) John Dewey
B) Plato
C) Karl Marx
D) Herbert Spencer

36. Sri Aurobindo's concept of education emphasizes:

A) Only vocational training
B) Memorization of textbooks
C) Integral development of the individual
D) Physical education alone

37. What is considered the most important aim of idealistic education?

A) Vocational training
B) Self-realization or exaltation of personality
C) Economic development
D) Physical development

38. According to Swami Vivekananda, the essence of education is:

A) Collection of facts
B) Memorization of information
C) Concentration of mind
D) Preparation for examinations

39. Who is regarded as the founder of the kindergarten system?

A) John Dewey
B) Plato
C) Friedrich Froebel
D) Swami Vivekananda

40. Which of the following is emphasized by idealism in education?

A) Material success alone
B) Mental, moral and spiritual development
C) Specialized vocational learning only
D) Memorization of facts

41. Which teaching method did Plato consider the best method of learning?

A) Lecture method
B) Imitation method
C) Dialectic method
D) Drill method

42. According to idealism, the teacher is primarily regarded as:

A) An examiner
B) A spiritual and moral guide
C) A classroom administrator
D) A technical instructor

43. According to Naturalism, the ultimate reality is:

A) Mind
B) Spirit
C) Nature
D) God

44. Who is considered the prominent proponent of Naturalism in education?

A) Plato
B) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
C) John Dewey
D) Aristotle

45. According to Rousseau, the best teacher of the child is:

A) The school
B) The textbook
C) Nature
D) The parent

46. Which method of education is strongly associated with Rousseau's Naturalism?

A) Rote learning
B) Play-way method
C) Lecture method
D) Dictation method

47. According to Naturalism, the senses are regarded as:

A) Obstacles to knowledge
B) The gateway to knowledge
C) Sources of moral values only
D) Means of memorization

48. Which of the following is an important aim of Naturalistic education?

A) Memorization of facts
B) Preparation only for examinations
C) Adjustment with the environment
D) Strict discipline and obedience

49. What is the slogan "Back to Nature" associated with in education?

A) Idealism
B) Naturalism
C) Pragmatism
D) Realism

50. Which of the following is an important aim of education according to Naturalism?

- A) Development according to the child's nature
- B) Memorization of textbooks
- C) Strict discipline
- D) Teacher-centered learning

51. Which type of curriculum is preferred by Naturalism?

- A) Rigid and fixed curriculum
- B) Teacher-centered curriculum
- C) Child-centered curriculum
- D) Examination-centered curriculum

52. Which of the following is emphasized in Naturalistic education?

- A) Rote learning
- B) Learning through experience
- C) Verbal instruction only
- D) Memorization

53. Which book by Rousseau is associated with his educational philosophy?

- A) The Republic
- B) Democracy and Education
- C) Emile, or On Education
- D) The School and Society

54. Rousseau's concept of "negative education" emphasizes:

- A) Giving children more textbooks
- B) Filling the child's mind with information
- C) Minimal interference in the child's natural development
- D) Strict teacher control

55. According to Naturalism, the central position in education is given to the:

- A) Teacher
- B) Curriculum
- C) State
- D) Child

56. According to Rousseau, what should be the role of the teacher?

A) Authoritative instructor
B) Non-interfering observer and facilitator
C) Strict disciplinarian
D) Examiner

57. Which method does Naturalism emphasize for acquiring knowledge?

A) Learning by doing
B) Rote memorization
C) Dictation
D) Repetition of textbook content

58. Which of the following is emphasized by Naturalism in education?

A) Freedom, initiative and self-expression
B) Strict discipline and punishment
C) Fixed curriculum and textbooks
D) Teacher authority

59. Naturalistic education primarily emphasizes the development of the child through:

A) Bookish knowledge
B) Direct experience with nature and environment
C) Examination preparation
D) Teacher lectures

60. The term "Pragmatism" is derived from the Greek word pragma, which means:

A) Truth
B) Activity, practice or action
C) Knowledge
D) Nature

61. Who is considered the father of pragmatism in education?

A) William James
B) Charles Sanders Peirce
C) John Dewey
D) F. C. Schiller

62. According to Pragmatism, the most important method of learning is:

A) Learning through memorization
B) Learning through lectures
C) Learning by doing
D) Learning through textbooks

63. According to pragmatism, the curriculum should primarily be:

A) Fixed and rigid
B) Teacher-centered
C) Child-centered, dynamic and flexible
D) Based only on theoretical knowledge

64. According to John Dewey, education is primarily:

A) Preparation for examinations
B) Reconstruction of experience
C) Memorization of facts
D) Transmission of fixed truths

65. According to pragmatism, the role of the teacher is primarily that of a:

A) Strict authority
B) Guide and facilitator
C) Source of all knowledge
D) Disciplinarian

66. According to pragmatism, discipline develops mainly through:

A) Punishment and rewards
B) Strict rules and regulations
C) Active participation in group and purposeful activities
D) Memorization of moral principles

67. According to John Dewey, education is:

A) Preparation for life
B) Acquisition of fixed knowledge
C) Life itself
D) Preparation for examinations

68. Which teaching method is given significant importance by pragmatism?

A) Rote memorization
B) Learning by doing
C) Lecture and dictation
D) Textbook-based learning

69. According to pragmatism, the school should function as a:

A) Separate institution from society
B) Miniature society
C) Religious institution
D) Examination centre

70. Which principle of curriculum development emphasizes combining subjects to form a cohesive body of knowledge?

A) Principle of utility
B) Principle of child's interest
C) Principle of experience
D) Principle of integration

Indian Educational Philosophy: Vedanta, Vivekananda & Aurobindo

71. Among the five layers of existence, the physical layer is known as:

A) Anamaya (Annamaya)
B) Pranamaya
C) Mana
D) Vanameaya

72. Among the five layers of existence, the vital layer is known as:

A) Anamaya
B) Pranamaya
C) Manomaya
D) Anamaya

73. Among the five layers of existence, the mental layer is known as:

A) Anamaya
B) Pranamaya
C) Manomaya
D) Vyanaya

74. Among the five layers of existence, the spiritual layer is known as:

A) Anandaya (Anandamaya) | B) Pranamaya

C) Manaya | D) Pityaya

75. According to Indian educational philosophy, the highest aim of education is:

A) Acquisition of employment skills | B) Accumulation of material wealth

C) Self-realization (Atmajnana) | D) Social competition

76. Which concept refers to the realization of the true nature of the self in Indian educational philosophy?

A) Karma | B) Atmajnana

C) Aparavidya | D) Sanskar

77. Which sequence represents the three stages of learning leading towards deeper understanding?

A) Karma → Yoga → Meditation | B) Shravana → Manana → Nididhyasana

C) Dharma → Artha → Kama | D) Reading → Writing → Examination

78. In Indian educational philosophy, the integration of spiritual and secular knowledge is expressed through:

A) Guru and disciple | B) Karma and Dharma

C) Paravidya and Aparavidya | D) Shravana and Manana

79. For Vivekananda, the ultimate test of education was _____.

A) Character | B) Job

C) Skill | D) None of the above

80. _____ is the metaphysical foundation of Vivekananda's educational vision.

A) Advaita	B) Buddhism
C) Jainism	D) None of the above

81. Whose message was a radical reimagining of education which he famously termed "man-making"?

A) Dr. B. R. Ambedkar	B) Vivekananda
C) Gandhi	D) None of the above

82. According to Swami Vivekananda, the true aim of education is:

A) Accumulation of information	B) Preparation for examinations
C) Manifestation of the perfection already within the individual	D) Development of vocational skills alone

83. According to Vivekananda, education as character-making primarily develops:

A) Memorization and examination skills	B) Strength of mind, intellect, character, and self-reliance
C) Technical knowledge alone	D) Competitive ability

84. According to Sri Aurobindo, integral development means:

A) Focusing mainly on intellectual excellence	B) Developing only moral and religious habits
C) Nurturing every part of the human being — physical, vital, mental and spiritual	D) Preparing students for competitive examinations

85. The aim of physical education in Aurobindo's system is to:

A) Train students only for sports competitions	B) Suppress bodily desires
C) Create a strong, harmonious and disciplined body fit to express higher consciousness	D) Reduce physical activity to focus on study

86. How should the vital or life force be treated according to Aurobindo?

A) Completely suppressed

B) Left uncontrolled

C) Educated and sublimated through art, music and disciplined activity

D) Ignored in education

87. Aurobindo distinguishes the true development of the mind from rote learning by emphasizing:

A) Memorization of facts

B) Examination success

C) Accumulation of information

D) Concentration, clarity, creativity, intuition and inner silence

88. The statement "Nothing can be taught" implies that the teacher should:

A) Strictly control and discipline students

B) Lecture continuously

C) Act as a guide who helps the child discover knowledge within

D) Avoid interacting with the students

89. Education according to the nature of the child means that:

A) All students should follow the same curriculum

B) Competition should be increased

C) Each child's unique tendencies and inner law of development must be respected

D) Only gifted students should receive attention

90. Why did Aurobindo stress the primacy of the mother tongue as the medium of instruction?

A) It is easier to control students

B) It promotes foreign cultural values

C) It enables natural, spontaneous expression of thought and originality

D) It reduces the need for books

91. According to Sri Aurobindo's philosophy, education is primarily understood as:

A) Preparation for economic productivity

B) Transmission of cultural traditions

C) A conscious process of integral self-development

D) Memorization of intellectual content

92. Sri Aurobindo describes the human being as a "transitional being" to emphasize that:

A) Humans are biologically incomplete

B) Human life is only socially determined

C) Humans are evolving towards a higher spiritual consciousness

D) Education must focus only on physical development

93. The integral aspect of education in Aurobindo's thought refers to:

A) Specialization in many academic subjects

B) Training only the intellect

C) Combining science and technology

D) Developing the body, emotions, mind and inner spiritual core together

94. According to Sri Aurobindo, why must the mind be consulted in its growth?

A) To impose a uniform curriculum

B) To respect the learner's natural development, interests and capacities

C) To increase examination performance

D) To encourage rote memorization

95. What is the role of the teacher according to Sri Aurobindo's educational philosophy?

A) Authoritarian instructor

B) Controller of students

C) Guide, helper and facilitator

D) Examiner only

96. Which of the following best represents Sri Aurobindo's view of mental education?

A) Accumulation of information

B) Development of mental faculties such as reasoning, imagination, memory and creativity

C) Memorization of textbooks

D) Preparation only for examinations

97. According to Sri Aurobindo, education should proceed:

A) From abstract to concrete

B) From difficult to easy

C) From near to far, from what is to what shall be

D) From teacher to student only

Mahatma Gandhi's Educational Philosophy

98. According to Gandhi, the primary aim of education is to:

A) Produce clerks and professionals

B) Develop morally strong, socially responsible and spiritually awakened individuals

C) Promote competition

D) Prepare students only for examinations

99. According to Gandhi, "knowledge without character" is:

A) Essential for progress

B) Dangerous

C) The highest form of education

D) Unnecessary for society

100. Which of the following is central to Gandhian education as service?

A) Personal advancement

B) Competition

C) Welfare of society and the common good

D) Economic success alone

101. In Gandhian education, productive work and manual labour primarily help develop:

A) Dependence

B) Dignity of labour and self-reliance

C) Competition

D) Intellectual superiority

102. According to Gandhi, the teacher should primarily act as a:

A) Strict authoritarian

B) Moral guide and role model

C) Government officer

D) Passive observer

103. According to Gandhian education, true service should be:

A) Forced by teachers

B) Done only for personal benefit

C) Voluntary and based on inner moral conviction

D) Limited to classroom activities

104. According to Mahatma Gandhi, the ultimate aim of education is:

A) Preparation for government employment

B) Intellectual excellence alone

C) Liberation of the individual at personal and social levels (Harmonious development)

D) Mastery of Western scientific knowledge

105. In Gandhian educational philosophy, true Swaraj primarily means:

A) Political independence alone

B) Economic globalization

C) Self-rule and mastery over one's own desires

D) Industrial development

106. The integration of head, heart and hand in Gandhian education signifies:

A) Separation of theory and practice

B) Holistic development of intellectual, moral and practical faculties

C) Preference for manual labour over intellectual work

D) Elimination of classroom teaching

107. Gandhi emphasized education through the mother tongue mainly to:

A) Reject all foreign languages

B) Promote cultural self-respect and deeper understanding

C) Limit global interaction

D) Simplify examinations

108. In Gandhian philosophy, productive manual work in education is intended to:

A) Replace academic subjects completely

B) Reduce the cost of schooling

C) Promote dignity of labour and economic self-reliance

D) Punish students through hard work

109. According to Mahatma Gandhi, self-discipline in education primarily aims at:

A) Enforcing strict obedience through punishment

B) Developing inner control aligned with truth and nonviolence

C) Preparing students for military service

D) Promoting competition among students

110. In Gandhian philosophy, true discipline should be:

A) Imposed by authority

B) Based on fear of punishment

C) Voluntary and internally motivated

D) Dependent on examination rules

111. The integration of productive manual work in education helps cultivate:

A) Physical strength alone

B) Economic profit for schools

C) Habits of patience, responsibility and self-control

D) Replacement of academic learning

112. In Gandhian basic education or Nai Talim, the center of the curriculum is:

A) Textbook learning

B) Craft or productive work

C) Examination preparation

D) Religious instruction

113. The spiritual foundation of Gandhian education is primarily based on:

A) Industrial development

B) Competition and success

C) Truth and nonviolence

D) Political power

114. According to Mahatma Gandhi, vocational education should primarily aim at:

A) Preparing students for clerical government jobs

B) Promoting industrial mass production

C) Integrating productive work with moral and intellectual development

D) Encouraging urban migration

115. Gandhian vocational education promotes economic self-reliance in order to achieve:

A) Industrial monopoly

B) Swaraj or self-rule

C) Competitive capitalism

D) Foreign trade expansion

116. According to Gandhi, the relationship between intellectual and vocational learning should be:

A) Completely separate

B) Opposite to each other

C) Integrated and correlated

D) Limited to higher education only

117. According to Mahatma Gandhi, the primary aim of women's education was to:

A) Prepare women only for domestic duties

B) Promote moral, intellectual and social empowerment

C) Encourage imitation of Western culture

D) Restrict women to village industries

118. Gandhi's concept of Nai Talim emphasized:

A) English-medium literary education

B) Examination-oriented learning

C) Craft-centered and productive work-based education

D) Urban industrial training only

119. Gandhi believed that educating women would have a multiplying effect on society because:

A) Women controlled political institutions

B) Women were the primary educators of children at home

C) Women dominated economic markets

D) Women were excluded from religion

120. In Gandhian philosophy, women were considered especially suited for nonviolent resistance because of their:

A) Physical strength

B) Legal authority

C) Moral courage and patience

D) Military training

121. Gandhi opposed the blind imitation of Western education for women because he believed education should:

A) Focus only on religious instruction

B) Ignore vocational training

C) Be rooted in cultural values and moral development

D) Eliminate community life