Introduction to the Unit

Welcome to Unit II of BASIC ARABIC LANGUAGE SKILLS. Having learned the essentials of greetings and self-introduction in Unit I, this unit invites you into the richer world of Arabic literature and reflective reading.

You will explore five short classical poems (قطرات الندى الشعرية) on the passing of time, the value of a mother, humility, reputation, and gratitude; a moving father-to-son story about the true meaning of wealth (العمل ثروة); a set of light-hearted Arabic anecdotes (طرائف عربية); and an essay on time and health (الوقت والصحة). Each text is followed by comprehension questions, vocabulary exercises, and short activities.
