English MCQ Collection

CHAPTER 1
Chapter 1: I Have a Dream

1. Where did Martin Luther King Jr. deliver the ·I Have a Dream· speech?

A. Montgomery, Alabama

B. Washington, D.C.

C. Atlanta, Georgia

D. Chicago, Illinois

2. What major theme does King emphasize in his ·dream·?

A. Economic prosperity for all Americans

B. A world without any political conflict

C. Racial equality and harmony

D. The expansion of American territory

3. Which rhetorical device is most famously used throughout the speech?

A. Irony

B. Repetition

C. Hyperbole

D. Alliteration

4. King refers to the Declaration of Independence to emphasize which idea?

A. America should become a monarchy

B. All citizens must follow strict laws

C. The promise of equal rights for all

D. The need for more economic reforms

5. According to the speech, what should people be judged by?

A. Their wealth

B. Their education level

C. Their character

D. Their political views

6. What is the primary purpose of the phrase ·I am happy to join with you· in the opening of the speech?

A. To highlight King's authority as a leader

B. To reduce the seriousness of the occasion

C. To create a sense of unity and inclusion

D. To criticize the audience

7. The phrase ·Five score years ago· deliberately echoes which historical speech?

A. Thomas Paine's Common Sense

B. Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address

C. George Washington's Farewell Address

D. Franklin Roosevelt's Inaugural Address

8. What literary or rhetorical device is used when King echoes earlier historical texts to add depth and meaning?

A. Hyperbole

B. Irony

C. Intertextuality

D. Personification

9. Why does King repeat the phrase ·100 years later· several times?

A. To provide statistical accuracy

B. To slow down the speech for clarity

C. To emphasize the long delay in achieving justice

D. To praise historical progress

10. In the check or promissory note metaphor, what does the bad check symbolize?

A. Economic failure of the government

B. Corruption in banking systems

C. America's failure to deliver promised rights

D. Individual financial struggle

11. Which classical rhetorical appeal is most clearly used when King argues that a promise was made and must logically be honored?

A. Ethos

B. Pathos

C. Logos

D. Allegory

12. When King says, ·Now is the time,· what rhetorical device is he using?

A. Metaphor

B. Anaphora

C. Alliteration

D. Oxymoron

13. What does King mean by ·meeting physical force with soul force·?

A. Using stronger weapons

B. Avoiding all protest

C. Responding with nonviolence and moral strength

D. Seeking international intervention

14. Which emotion is most strongly evoked during the ·I Have a Dream· sequence?

A. Fear

B. Cynicism

C. Hope

D. Indifference

15. Why does King end the speech by urging people to go back to their states?

A. To end the movement

B. To avoid national attention

C. To encourage continued organized and non-violent action

D. To return to normal life

CHAPTER 2
Chapter 2: Anthem, Leonard Cohen

16. According to the poem, what instruction is heard at the break of day that encourages renewal and resilience?

A. Focus only on what is yet to be.

B. Start again, and do not dwell on the past or future.

C. Ring the bells that still can ring, ignoring the past.

D. Fight the wars that will be fought again.

17. What specific critique is offered regarding the "holy dove," often symbolising peace or innocence?

A. It is often forgotten when the wars are fought.

B. It sings to announce the need to start again.

C. It is continually caught, bought, and sold, confirming it is "never free".

D. It represents the perfect offering that must be forgotten.

18. The speaker rejects complicity with the "lawless crowd" and highlights the hypocrisy of the powerful by noting that the "killers in high places" are doing what action?

A. Summoning a thundercloud.

B. Running away from the battle.

C. Saying their prayers out loud.

D. Adding up the parts to find the sum.

19. What metaphorical element is identified as the necessary channel for "the light" to enter, reflecting the central theme of grace through imperfection?

A. The ringing of the bells that still can ring.

B. The birth betrayed or the marriage spent.

C. A crack, a crack in everything.

D. The finding of a drum for the march.

20. The poem states that "Every heart, every heart / To love will come." However, how is the arrival of this love characterised, indicating a sense of vulnerability?

A. Like a perfect offering.

B. Like a lawless crowd.

C. Like a thundercloud.

D. But like a refugee.

21. Leonard Cohen's "Anthem" is often interpreted as a call for:

A. Revolution

B. Acceptance of flaws and imperfections

C. Economic reform

D. Political change

22. In "Anthem," Cohen mentions "the bells," which can be interpreted as a metaphor for:

A. War and conflict

B. Joy and celebration

C. Tradition and routine

D. Change and awakening

23. Leonard Cohen's "Anthem" encourages listeners to:

A. Strive for perfection in all things

B. Embrace imperfection as a part of life

C. Ignore the world's problems

D. Seek wealth and success above all else

24. What kind of text is Anthem in the listening module?

A. Political speech

B. A short story

C. A song with poetic lyrics

D. A newspaper article

25. What message do the birds give in the first stanza?

A. Remember the past

B. Fear the future

C. Start again and live in the present

D. Wait for perfection

26. How is the dove presented in the song?

A. Flying freely

B. Sleeping peacefully

C. Trapped and bought and sold

D. Singing happily

27. Which line expresses the central message of the song?

A. We asked for signs

B. You can add up the parts

C. There is a crack in everything

D. They're going to hear from me

28. What does the crack in the famous line represent?

A. Complete destruction

B. A place where light and hope can enter

C. A physical break in an object

D. Silence

29. The phrase ·forget your perfect offering· advises us to:

A. Stop believing in religion

B. Wait for ideal conditions

C. Let go of the search for perfection

D. Avoid helping others

30. In the third stanza, what kind of signs are given to humanity?

A. Miracles and blessings

B. Messages from angels

C. Evidence of social and moral decay

D. Scientific discoveries

31. What does the line ·killers in high places who say their prayers out loud· criticize?

A. Nature

B. Children

C. Hypocrisy of powerful people

D. Love

32. In the fifth stanza, what does ·you can add up the parts but you won't have the sum" suggest?

A. Life is fully logical

B. Life cannot be fully explained by reason

C. Mathematics is useless

D. Knowledge is unnecessary

33. How is love described in the final stanza?

A. Perfect and safe

B. Unimportant

C. Arriving like a refugee

D. Absent

CHAPTER 3
Chapter 3: Art as Social-work by Amy Morales Lara

34. How does Amy Morales Lara personally define art in the context of her discussion?

A. A skill that requires a professional certification.

B. A practice-based discipline that promotes social change.

C. A form of creative expression that can help you tell a story.

D. Only specialized creative fields like painting and sculpture.

35. According to Amy Morales Lara, what is the primary role of a "helper" in the context of social work?

A. To rescue someone from their problems and provide definitive solutions.

B. To manage equitable outcomes and access to care for a community.

C. To partner with someone in their own process of self-development and growth.

D. To challenge negative self-narratives through music and songwriting.

36. What phrase, spoken by her professor, validated Amy Morales Lara's idea of combining creative arts and social work?

A. "The intersection is not impossible, only requires courage."

B. "In many ways, many social workers are also frustrated artists.”

C. "Art is accessible to everyone, regardless of skill level."

D. "You must lean into the principles of compassion, empathy, and curiosity."

37. Amy Morales Lara notes that art is present in advocacy. What specific example does she cite to show how creative people use art in advocacy?

A. Creating digital art to explore identity and injustice.

B. Organizing community mural projects.

C. Utilizing beautiful images and words on picket signs.

D. Implementing art therapy for anxiety and depression.

38. Amy Morales Lara highlights that the Bronx had a meaningful art renaissance that brought about things that changed the world as we know it. Name any two of the few things she mentions that have been ground-breaking developments that have been cultivated in the Bronx:

A. Abstract painting and modern poetry.

B. Jazz and classical music theory.

C. Hip-hop and salsa.

D. Film-making and traditional theater.

39. When encouraging the audience to enter an art space, what key quality does Amy Morales Lara explicitly state is not the goal?

A. Courageousness.

B. Openness.

C. Bravery.

D. Perfection.

40. In "Art as Social Work," Amy Morales Lara likely emphasizes the role of art in:

A. Generating profit

B. Providing entertainment

C. Facilitating healing and liberation

D. Creating political propaganda

41. How does Amy Morales Lara view the intersection of art and social work?

A. As two unrelated fields

B. As a way to monetize creative talents

C. As a powerful tool for community building and emotional support

D. As a form of traditional therapy

42. How does Amy begin her TED talk?

A. By listing her achievements

B. By admitting she feels lost and uncertain

C. By introducing social work statistics

D. By playing music

43. What two main questions does Amy ask herself at the start?

A. How to earn money and gain fame?

B. Who to marry and where to live?

C. Who she wants to become and what she wants to do with her life?

D. How to finish her degree quickly?

44. Who inspires Amy's idea of being a helper?

A. Her university professor

B. Her mother

C. Mr. Rogers

D. A famous musician

45. How does Amy define a true helper?

A. Someone who rescues people from their problems

B. Someone who gives people money

C. Someone who partners with others in their growth

D. Someone who solves every problem

46. What central question drives Amy's talk?

A. How to become a professional musician?

B. How to leave the Bronx?

C. How to combine social work with creative arts?

D. How to get into graduate school?

47. How does Amy define social work?

A. A business practice

B. A practice-based discipline promoting social change and support

C. A form of artistic expression

D. A political movement

48. How does Amy define art?

A. Only painting and sculpture

B. Any creative expression that tells a story

C. Only professional performance

D. Something only talented people can do

49. How did music help Amy personally?

A. It made her famous

B. It helped her challenge negative narratives

C. It earned her money

D. It helped her pass exams

50. What phrase did Amy's professor say that changed her perspective?

A. Artists cannot be social workers

B. Many social workers are frustrated artists

C. Choose one career only

D. Music is not practical

51. What final message does Amy leave the audience with?

A. Everyone must become an artist

B. Only social workers can be helpers

C. Compassion, empathy, and curiosity allow us all to be helpers

D. Success means never feeling lost

CHAPTER 4
Module 2 Chapter 4: George Carlin on Soft Language

Speaking skills primarily refer to the ability to

A. Describing economic conditions

B. speak loudly in public

C. express ideas clearly and effectively through spoken language

D. memorise vocabulary

Fluency in speaking means

A. Using difficult vocabulary

B. Speaking without grammatical errors

C. Speaking smoothly with minimal hesitation

D. speaking very fast

Which factor ensures that language used suits the situation and audience?

A. Vocabulary

B. Pronunciation

C. Appropriateness

D. Fluency

Organising thoughts before speaking mainly helps to

A. Increase speed of speech

B. Impress the audience with vocabulary

C. Provide clarity and logical flow

D. Avoid pronunciation errors

Which of the following helps most in improving pronunciation?

A. Writing essays

B. Listening and imitating good speakers

C. Memorising grammar rules

D. Silent reading

52. What is the central theme of George Carlin's "Soft Language"?

A. The importance of learning new vocabulary

B. The history of the English language

C. The use of euphemisms to conceal reality

D. The development of modern comedy

53. According to Carlin, why do people use soft language?

A. To make communication more accurate

B. To make reality easier to face

C. To improve grammar and pronunciation

D. To increase the length of conversations

54. What was the term used during World War I to describe psychological trauma experienced by soldiers?

A. Battle Fatigue

B. Operational Exhaustion

C. Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder

D. Shell Shock

55. Which term replaced "Shell Shock" during World War II?

A. Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder

B. Battle Fatigue

C. Operational Exhaustion

D. Combat Disorder

56. According to Carlin, what happened to the term describing combat trauma over time?

A. It became simpler and more direct.

B. It became more emotional.

C. It became longer and more technical.

D. It disappeared completely.

57. What does Carlin suggest about euphemistic language?

A. It makes communication clearer.

B. It strengthens emotional expression.

C. It often hides unpleasant truths.

D. It improves social harmony in all situations.

58. Which literary technique is most prominent in Carlin's performance?

A. Romantic imagery

B. Satire and irony

C. Epic narration

D. Symbolism

59. What broader message does Carlin convey through his stand-up routine?

A. Language has little influence on society.

B. Humour should avoid serious topics.

C. Words can shape how people perceive reality.

D. Technical language is always superior to ordinary language.

CHAPTER 5
Chapter 5: Death of a Salesman - Arthur Miller

60. What major historical event significantly influenced Arthur Miller's understanding of society and shaped his dramatic works?

a) The First World War

b) The American Civil War

c) The Great Depression

d) The Cold War

61. Which of the following works established Arthur Miller's international reputation and won both the Pulitzer Prize and the Tony Award?

a) The Crucible

b) All My Sons

c) A View from the Bridge

d) Death of a Salesman

62. Who was the primary inspiration for the character of Willy Loman?

a) Arthur Miller's father

b) Arthur Miller's brother

c) Arthur Miller's uncle, Manny Newman

d) Arthur Miller's college professor

63. Which theme is most central to Death of a Salesman?

a) Colonialism and nationalism

b) The American Dream and its limitations

c) War and heroism

d) Scientific progress and technology

64. Why does Biff lose his admiration for Willy?

a) Willy loses his job

b) Willy refuses to support him financially

c) Biff discovers Willy's extramarital affair

d) Willy forces him to leave home

65. What does the transformation of Willy's neighbourhood symbolize in the play?

a) Economic prosperity and urban success

b) The growth of American democracy

c) The loss of personal freedom, security, and connection with nature

d) The rise of industrial employment opportunities

66. In the prescribed extract, what problem causes Willy to return home unexpectedly?

a) He loses an important business contract.

b) His car breaks down on the highway.

c) He becomes unable to concentrate while driving and nearly causes an accident.

d) He receives news of a family emergency.

CHAPTER 6
Chapter: Rip it out Peter Weir

67. Who is the teacher conducting the English literature class in the ·Rip It Out· scene?

A. Dr. J. Evans Pritchard

B. Mr. McAllister

C. John Keating

D. Mr. Perry

68. What does Dr. J. Evans Pritchard·s method attempt to do?

A. Teach students to write their own poetry

B. Measure the greatness of poetry through charts, formulas, and analysis

C. Encourage students to perform poetry on stage

D. Explain the historical background of poetry

69. Why does Keating ask the students to tear out the introduction to their poetry textbook?

A. Because the textbook is outdated

B. Because he wants the students to memorize the poems

C. Because he rejects the rigid method of reducing poetry to formulas and measurements

D. Because the textbook contains incorrect biographical information

70. According to Keating, why do people read and write poetry?

A. To get better examination marks

B. To prepare for professional careers

C. Because human beings are filled with passion and poetry gives meaning to life

D. Because poetry is easier to understand than other subjects

71. Which poet does Keating quote toward the end of the scene?

A. Lord Byron

B. William Shakespeare

C. Walt Whitman

D. J. Evans Pritchard

72. What does Keating mean by asking, ·What will your verse be?·

A. He asks students to memorize a particular poem.

B. He encourages students to discover their own identity and make a meaningful contribution to life.

C. He wants students to become professional poets.

D. He asks students to write a poem for their next examination.

73. Why is the lesson included in the B.S. syllabus?

A) To teach tearing pages

B) To memorize answers

C) To encourage deep understanding and independent thinking

D) To study the film's history

74. What makes the classroom scene revolutionary?

A) Memorizing poetry

B) Questioning and independent thinking

C) Strict rules regarding obedience

D) Following traditional methods

75. How is Welton Academy described?

A) A creative and liberal institution

B) A strict, disciplined, and obedient institution

C) An institution focused on emotional freedom

D) An institution without rules

76. What is Mr. Keating's critique of traditional poetry?

A) Poetry should be memorized

B) Poetry should be treated scientifically

C) Poetry should be felt; it should not be mechanical

D) Poetry should follow fixed rules

77. Tearing out the introduction symbolizes what?

A) Disrespect for books

B) Rejection of mechanical learning and fear

C) Following rules

D) Memorization

CHAPTER 7
Module - 3: The Second Coming by William Butler Yeats

78. "The Second Coming" was written by W. B. Yeats in the aftermath of:

A. The French Revolution

B. The First World War

C. The Second World War

D. The Irish Potato Famine

79. In the poem, the "falcon" primarily symbolizes:

A. Nature

B. Humanity

C. Christianity

D. The poet himself

80. What does the line "Things fall apart; the centre cannot hold" suggest?

A. Society is becoming more united.

B. Civilization is collapsing and order is breaking down.

C. Nature is returning to its original state.

D. Peace has finally been restored.

81. The phrase Spiritus Mundi refers to:

A. The Kingdom of Heaven

B. A mythical kingdom

C. The collective memory and imagination of humanity

D. The Roman Empire

82. The "rough beast" in the poem symbolizes:

A. The return of Christ

B. Hope and redemption

C. A terrifying new historical age

D. The triumph of Christianity

83. Which of the following is a major theme of ·The Second Coming·?

A. Romantic love and beauty

B. Nature and pastoral life

C. Chaos, violence, and the collapse of civilization

D. Adventure and heroism

84. The poem ends with a rhetorical question about the "rough beast" slouching towards Bethlehem. What is the effect of this ending?

A. It provides a clear solution to the world's problems.

B. It celebrates the return of peace and harmony.

C. It leaves readers with uncertainty and a sense of fear about the future.

D. It confirms that Christ has already returned.

CHAPTER 8
Chapter: The Frog Prince by James Finn Garner

85. James Finn Garner's ·The Frog Prince· is a modern retelling of the fairy tale originally popularized by:

A. Hans Christian Andersen

B. Charles Perrault

C. The Grimm Brothers

D. Lewis Carroll

86. In Garner's version of the story, the princess is portrayed as:

A. Helpless and dependent on the prince

B. Intelligent, independent, and eco-feminist

C. A selfish and spoiled royal child

D. A powerless victim of the sorcerer

87. After the spell is broken, the frog is transformed into:

A. A handsome prince

B. A brave knight

C. A wealthy merchant

D. A greedy real estate developer

88. Which of the following themes is most strongly represented by the transformed frog's plan to drain the pond and cut down the forest?

A. Romantic love

B. Capitalism and corporate greed

C. Friendship and loyalty

D. Religious faith

89. Which literary devices are most prominently used by James Finn Garner in ·The Frog Prince?”

A. Allegory and epic

B. Satire and parody

C. Tragedy and realism

D. Myth and legend

90. What is the main purpose of Garner's retelling of ·The Frog Prince?·

A. To preserve the traditional fairy tale without any changes

B. To celebrate monarchy and royal traditions

C. To entertain readers while criticizing modern social issues and traditional stereotypes

D. To provide a historical account of medieval Europe

CHAPTER 9
Chapter: Optimism: An Essay by Helen Keller

91. According to Helen Keller, what is the universal desire shared by all human beings?

a) Wealth

b) Fame

c) Happiness

d) Power

92. According to Keller, true happiness comes primarily from:

a) Material possessions and luxury

b) Social status and success

c) Inner strength, hope, and meaningful work

d) Physical comfort and pleasure

93. What transformed Helen Keller's life from "darkness and stillness" to "hope and joy"?

a) Travelling around the world

b) Learning language through Anne Sullivan

c) Becoming a famous writer

d) Earning a university degree

94. What does Helen Keller mean by "false optimism"?

a) Believing that wealth guarantees happiness

b) Ignoring suffering and injustice while pretending everything is fine

c) Working hard without expecting rewards

d) Having confidence in difficult situations

95. According to Keller, what does suffering help develop in human beings?

a) Fear and dependence

b) Anger and revenge

c) Patience, courage, and compassion

d) Pride and ambition

96. Which statement best reflects Keller's view of work?

a) Work is only a means of earning money.

b) Only great achievements are valuable.

c) The desire and willingness to work is itself an expression of optimism.

d) Work should be avoided whenever possible.

97. How does Helen Keller describe optimism at the end of the essay?

a) As a temporary emotion

b) As blind faith without reason

c) As her religion and guiding philosophy of life

d) As a form of material success

98. According to Helen Keller, what is the fundamental desire shared by all human beings?

A) Wealth

B) Power

C) Happiness

D) Knowledge

Explanation: Keller argues that the will to be happy is present in everyone, regardless of social position or intellectual ability.

99. According to Helen Keller, what is NOT the true basis of optimism?

A) Hope and confidence

B) Facing difficulties and evil

C) Material possessions and physical pleasure

D) A willingness to work

Explanation: Keller rejects the idea that happiness and optimism depend on physical pleasure or material possessions. Her optimism comes from within and from facing reality.

100. What does Helen Keller mean by saying that ·the desire and will to work is optimism itself”?

A) Work is only a way to earn money

B) Willingness to work gives life purpose and expresses optimism

C) Physical work should be avoided

D) Optimism comes from avoiding difficulties

Explanation: Keller connects optimism with the desire to contribute, work, create and make oneself useful.

101. According to Keller, why is facing evil and suffering important?

A) It makes people pessimistic

B) It helps people avoid responsibility

C) It makes people stronger and helps them appreciate goodness

D) It eliminates all problems from life

Explanation: Keller says that understanding evil and suffering helps us recognize the beauty of truth, love and goodness. Difficulties can make people stronger, patient and helpful.

102. What does Helen Keller mean by her ·religion of optimism·?

A) Believing that life will never contain suffering

B) Depending completely on wealth and power

C) Trusting in a supreme power and facing life with courage and optimism

D) Ignoring all social problems

CHAPTER 10
Chapter: Speech Prepared by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar for the 1936 Annual Conference of Jat-Pat-Todak Mandal of Lahore

103. According to Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the caste system is not merely a division of labour because it is also a:

a) Division of wealth

b) Division of religion

c) Division of labourers

d) Division of language

104. Why does Ambedkar criticise the caste system's method of assigning occupations?

a) It encourages competition among workers.

b) It is based on the social status of one's parents rather than individual ability.

c) It allows people to choose their professions freely.

d) It increases industrial productivity.

105. According to the speech, what does the caste system prevent individuals from doing?

a) Receiving higher education

b) Participating in politics

c) Changing occupations according to changing circumstances

d) Owning property

106. Ambedkar argues that the caste system contributes to unemployment because it:

a) Discourages industrial development.

b) Prevents people from taking occupations outside their hereditary caste.

c) Promotes excessive competition.

d) Encourages migration to cities.

107. According to Ambedkar, many occupations in India provoke "aversion" among workers because they are:

a) Poorly paid.

b) Difficult to perform.

c) Considered degrading and carry social stigma.

d) Located in rural areas.

108. What is Ambedkar's final assessment of the caste system as an economic organisation?

a) It is beneficial because it preserves traditional occupations.

b) It is necessary for maintaining social order.

c) It is harmful because it suppresses people's natural abilities and interests.

d) It is suitable only for agricultural societies.

109. Why was Ambedkar's speech for Jat-Pat Todak Mandal never delivered?

A) Ambedkar was unable to attend the conference.

B) The conference was cancelled due to political unrest.

C) The organizers found his criticism of Hindu scriptures too provocative and cancelled the event.

D) The speech was incomplete when submitted.

110. According to Ambedkar, caste is not merely a division of labor because:

A) It encourages economic growth.

B) It divides laborers into a hierarchy based on birth.

C) It allows individuals to choose occupations freely.

D) It promotes social mobility.

111. What does Ambedkar identify as a major consequence of caste-based occupational assignment?

A) Increased innovation and productivity.

B) Equal distribution of resources.

C) Restriction of individual freedom and talent.

D) Greater cooperation among social groups.

112. Ambedkar argues that caste prevents social and economic progress because:

A) It encourages people to acquire new skills.

B) It promotes competition among occupations.

C) It allows occupations to change according to economic needs.

D) It locks people into hereditary occupations regardless of their ability and/or skills.

113. According to Ambedkar, the psychological harm of caste lies in its tendency to:

A) Encourage healthy social relationships.

B) Increase self-confidence among all communities.

C) Create feelings of shame, inferiority, and social stigma.

D) Strengthen democratic values.

CHAPTER 11
Chapter: The World-Renowned Nose by Vaikom Muhammad Basheer

114. What is the main reason for the cook's sudden fame in the story?

A. He writes a famous book.

B. He delivers a powerful political speech.

C. His nose grows unusually long.

D. He wins a national award.

115. Which institution is most sharply criticized for turning the cook into a public spectacle?

A. The educational system

B. The media

C. The judiciary

D. The military

116. What does the extraordinarily long nose primarily symbolize in the story?

A. Physical strength and courage

B. Society's obsession with fame and spectacle

C. Scientific progress and innovation

D. Religious devotion

117. Which of the following best describes the character of the cook?

A. Ambitious, educated, and politically active

B. Wealthy, influential, and manipulative

C. Innocent, simple, and easily exploited

D. Proud, arrogant, and power-hungry

118. How does Basheer mainly criticize politics in The World-Renowned Nose?

A. By portraying politicians as heroic leaders

B. By showing political parties exploiting the cook's fame for their own interests

C. By encouraging citizens to participate in elections

D. By describing detailed government policies

119. Which literary device is most prominently employed throughout The World-Renowned Nose?

A. Tragedy

B. Romanticism

C. Satire combined with humour and exaggeration

D. Detective fiction

120. Why was Ambedkar's speech for the Jat-Pat Todak Mandal never delivered?

A) Ambedkar was unable to attend the conference.

B) The conference was cancelled due to political unrest.

C) The organizers found his criticism of Hindu scriptures too provocative and cancelled the event.

D) The speech was incomplete when submitted.

121. According to Ambedkar, caste is not merely a division of labor because:

A) It encourages economic growth.

B) It divides laborers into a hierarchy based on birth.

C) It allows individuals to choose occupations freely.

D) It promotes social mobility.

122. What does Ambedkar identify as a major consequence of caste-based occupational assignment?

A) Increased innovation and productivity.

B) Equal distribution of resources.

C) Restriction of individual freedom and talent.

D) Greater cooperation among social groups.

123. Ambedkar argues that caste prevents social and economic progress because:

A) It encourages people to acquire new skills.

B) It promotes competition among occupations.

C) It allows occupations to change according to economic needs.

D) It locks people into hereditary occupations regardless of their ability and/or skills.

124. According to Ambedkar, the psychological harm of caste lies in its tendency to:

A) Encourage healthy social relationships.

B) Increase self-confidence among all communities.

C) Create feelings of shame, inferiority, and social stigma.

D) Strengthen democratic values.

CHAPTER 12
Chapter: For the Love of Cinema: A Review of Cinema Paradiso (1988) by Kusali Rupasinghe

125. What is the primary setting of Cinema Paradiso?

A. A bustling city in Rome

B. A small Sicilian town named Giancaldo

C. A village in northern France

D. A coastal town in Spain

126. What role does Alfredo play in Toto's life?

A. He is Toto's schoolteacher.

B. He is Toto's elder brother.

C. He becomes Toto's mentor and father figure.

D. He is a famous film director.

127. According to Kusali Rupasinghe's review, what makes Cinema Paradiso a "love letter to cinema"?

A. It focuses mainly on filmmaking technology.

B. It celebrates the joy, nostalgia, and communal experience of watching films.

C. It criticises modern cinema and television.

D. It tells the history of Italian cinema in detail.

128. In the film, what does the priest do whenever a kissing scene appears on the screen?

A. He leaves the cinema hall.

B. He applauds the audience.

C. He rings a bell to have the scene censored.

D. He stops the film permanently.

129. Which of the following qualities of Kusali Rupasinghe's review best demonstrates effective movie review writing?

A. Revealing the entire ending of the film

B. Focusing only on the plot without analysis

C. Combining personal memories with critical evaluation and avoiding spoilers

D. Criticising every aspect of the film without evidence

130. Which major theme is most strongly conveyed through Toto's return to Giancaldo after Alfredo's death?

A. Political revolution

B. Scientific progress

C. Nostalgia and the lasting influence of childhood memories

D. Competition in the film industry